The Songbridge Team

Jana Reid has 27 years of ‘on hand’ experience within the music industry. From studying audio engineering to writing and performing. She studied opera for many years, sang jazz, country, blues, pop and rock, winning OCMA’s CD of the year in ‘97 and earning 2 female vocalist nominations. In 2001 she took over the Canadian operations of AMI-Amsterdam Management Inc. a record label, publishing and artist management company representing JUNO nominees, Steve Fox, Duane Steele and Wendell Ferguson, as well as the actor Leslie Nielsen. The job included concert production, contract negotiation, design and implementation of promotional materials, poster design press releases, music licensing and representation at all major industry conferences. She is a member of SOCAN CCMA, CARAS, ATAA, OSAC, WCMA, COCA and CCI.

Kathryn Smit designs and maintains Songbridge’s online services. Kathryn has over seven years experience in designing everything from websites to corporate logos and graphics. Through her company DEZIGN, she provides innovative Web design services for a variety of clients. Kathryn has written articles for Womenlinks and other online groups, and has done seminar reporting for Toronto Web Grrls and was featured Web Grrl for January 2000. She teaches Advanced HTML courses offered to the 3000+ membership, as well as participating in creating web sites for charities in her community.
